1. Amending Resolution No. 71,513-N.S. Encampment Policy Resolution to Promote Healthy and Safe Neighborhoods to Include Prohibition Against Encampments in Close Proximity to Preschools and In-Home Early Childhood Daycare Facilities
   From: Councilmember Kesarwani (Author), Councilmember Blackaby (Co-Sponsor), Councilmember Taplin (Co-Sponsor)
   Recommendation: Approve adoption of a new resolution amending the Encampment Policy to Promote Healthy and Safe Neighborhoods and rescinding Resolution No. 71,513-N.S. Recommend the new resolution adds proximity to licensed preschools and/or in-home early childhood daycare facilities to the list of circumstances in which the City Manager is authorized to close an encampment even when an offer of shelter is not practicable.
   Specifically, it is recommended to add a 600foot buffer zone prohibiting encampments around preschools and in-home early childhood daycare facilities in order to safeguard the health and welfare of young children. Preschool-aged children are particularly vulnerable to a range of public health concerns because they are more likely to play closer to the ground, touching potentially infected objects and then putting their hands in their mouth. A buffer zone around these institutions should be adopted to minimize public health and safety risks. Resolution No. 71,513-N.S should add to the list of enforcement circumstances:
   -The encampment is located within 600 feet of any licensed preschool and/or in-home early childhood daycare facility as measured by a straight line from the nearest point of the property line of the parcel on which the preschool/in-home early childhood daycare facility is located to the nearest point of the encampment, including its associated belongings.
   Further, refer to the City Manager to amend Administrative Regulation 10.2 to clarify that Temporary Non-Commercial (TNC) objects are prohibited within 600 feet of a licensed preschool/in-home early childhood daycare facility.
   Financial Implications: Staff time
   Contact: Rashi Kesarwani, Councilmember, District 1, (510) 981-7110
