(See Save the Date announcement, attached.) The Commissioners of the PRC request the City Council's permission for the Commission to be listed as a co-sponsor of this program. BACKGROUND

NACOLE's mission is to enhance fair and professional law enforcement that is responsive to community needs. It is the largest civilian oversight organization in the country, with a membership comprised of oversight practitioners, community stakeholders, law enforcement personnel, elected officials, journalists, academics, students, and others. Each fall, NACOLE holds an annual conference attended by the organization's members and others from across the nation.

Additionally, NACOLE holds a series of regional training and networking events throughout the year. The regional gatherings are designed to allow more opportunities for civilian overseers and interested stakeholders to meet and exchange information and ideas about issues of local law enforcement oversight.

The May 3, 2019 event is expected to draw oversight practitioners and interested community members from Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco, San Jose, Richmond, Sonoma County, Sacramento, and beyond. Topics to be addressed are: civilian oversight of county jails, release of police personnel records under SB 1421, and the strengths and limitations of different oversight models.
