Land Acknowledgement Statement

The City of Berkeley recognizes that the community we live in was built on the territory of xučyun (Huchiun (Hooch-yoon)), the ancestral and unceded land of the Chochenyo (Cho-chen-yo)-speaking Ohlone (Oh-low-nee) people, the ancestors and descendants of the sovereign Verona Band of Alameda County. This land was and continues to be of great importance to all of the Ohlone Tribes and descendants of the Verona Band. As we begin our meeting tonight, we acknowledge and honor the original inhabitants of Berkeley, the documented 5,000-year history of a vibrant community at the West Berkeley Shellmound, and the Ohlone people who continue to reside in the East Bay. We recognize that Berkeley's residents have and continue to benefit from the use and occupation of this unceded stolen land since the City of Berkeley's incorporation in 1878. As stewards of the laws regulating the City of Berkeley, it is not only vital that we recognize the history of this land, but also recognize that the Ohlone people are present members of Berkeley and other East Bay communities today. The City of Berkeley will continue to build relationships with the Lisjan Tribe and to create meaningful actions that uphold the intention of this land acknowledgement.

PROBLEM/SUMMARY STATEMENT

Commissions provide an important mechanism for residents to shape public policy and provide input on City business. However, the City of Berkeley maintains far more commissions than other cities of similar size, with a significant investment of City resources to staff all 37 commissions. Some commission secretaries report spending upwards of 20+ hours per week on commission business, which takes valuable time away from addressing other pressing City priorities. The local public health emergency created by the global COVID-19 pandemic has required City staff to shift to new roles and maintain an Emergency Operations Center since January 2020; recovery from the pandemic will continue to demand the full attention of our City staff for the foreseeable future. Given the uncertainties that our City faces in recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic and the demands that this recovery places on our City staff, it is an appropriate time to consider how best to consolidate our commissions in a manner that helps the City to achieve its core mission.

REITERATION OF PRINCIPLES

Commissions are a fundamental part of the City's policymaking process. Members of boards and commissions provide an invaluable service to our City. They advise the City Council on a wide variety of subjects by making recommendations on important policy matters. Without the assistance of the various boards and commissions, the City Council could give many complex and significant matters only a perfunctory review. The detailed studies and considered advice of boards and commissions are often catalysts for innovative programs and improved services. Serving on a board or commission can be a rewarding experience for community service-minded residents. It is an excellent way to participate in the functioning of local government and to make a personal contribution to the improvement of our community. Making local government effective and responsive is everybody's responsibility.

- The Public Works Commission, for example, develops the City's five year paving plan which they then present to City Council for approval. Through extensive community outreach and research, the Commission identifies the streets most in need of repaving.
- With the passage of Measure D in 2014, a Panel of Experts on Sugar-Sweetened Beverages has guided the City's spending of over $5 million in revenue generated from the Measure. Those dollars have bolstered local public campaigns and education initiatives.

These are merely two examples of the powerful role that Commissions play in City policymaking.

CURRENT SITUATION AND ITS EFFECTS

Current Commission Structure

The City of Berkeley has approximately thirty-seven commissions overseen by city administration, most of which have at least nine members and who are appointed by individual councilmembers. These commissions were intended to be a forum for public participation beyond what is feasible at the City Council, so that issues that come before the City Council can be adequately vetted.

Some commissions are required by charter or mandated by voter approval or state/federal mandate. Those commissions are the following:

1. Board of Library Trustees (charter)
2. Business Improvement Districts (state mandate)
3. Civic Arts Commission (charter)
4. Community Environmental Advisory Commission (state/federal mandate--CUPA)
5. Fair Campaign Practices Commission/Open Government (ballot measure)
6. Homeless Services Panel of Experts (ballot measure)
7. Housing Advisory Commission (state/federal mandate)
8. Human Welfare and Community Action (state/federal mandate)
9. Measure O Bond Oversight Committee (ballot measure)
10. Mental Health Commission (state/federal mandate)
11. Personnel (charter)Police Review Commission (ballot measure)
12. Sugar-Sweetened Beverages (ballot measure)

Berkeley must have its own mental health commission because of its independent Mental Health Division. In order to receive services, the City needs to have to have an advisory board. Additionally, Berkeley's Community Environmental Advisory Commission is a required commission in order to oversee Certified Unified Program Agency (CUPA) under California's Environmental Protection Agency. Additionally, some commissions serve other purposes beyond policy advisories. The Children, Youth and Recreation Commission, Housing Advisory Commission, and the Human Welfare and Community Action Commission advise Council on community agency funding. However, some of the aforementioned quasi-judicial and state/federal mandated commissions do not need to stand independently and can be combined to meet mandated goals.

The Importance of Commissions

Commissions serve a vital role in the City of Berkeley's rich process of resident engagement. An analysis of agendas over the past several years shows that the commissions have created policy that have benefited the community in meaningful and important ways. In 2020, 14 of the 16 commission items submitted to Council passed. From 2016-2020, an average of 34 items were submitted by commissions to Council for consideration.

The City's Health, Housing and Community Development department serves an important role in addressing COVID-19, racial disparities, inequitable health outcomes, affordable housing, and other important community programs. Additionally, Health, Housing, and Community Development also staffs ten commissions, more than many cities of Berkeley's size. Council needs to wrestle with these tradeoffs to ensure that we seek the maximum benefit for all of the Berkeley community, particularly our most vulnerable.

Commission Structures in Neighboring Jurisdictions

In comparison to neighboring jurisdictions of similar size, Berkeley has significantly more commissions. The median number of commissions for these cities is 12 and the average is 15.

The departments that staff more than five commissions are Health, Housing, and Community Services (10 commissions), Planning (7 commissions), and the City Manager’s department (8 commissions). At the same time, some smaller departments (e.g. the City Attorney’s office) may be impacted just as meaningfully if they have fewer staff and larger individual commission workloads.

Policy Committee Structure Expands Opportunities for Public Input

With the recent addition of policy committees, proposed legislation is now vetted by councilmembers in these forums. Each policy committee is focused on a particular content area aligned with the City of Berkeley’s strategic plan and is staffed and an advisory policy body to certain city departments. Members of the public are able to provide input at these committees as well. The policy committees currently have the following department alignment:

Department and Policy Committee alignment

1. Agenda and Rules—all departments
2. Budget and Finance—City Manager, Clerk, Budget, and Finance
3. Land Use and Economic Development—Clerk, Planning, HHCS, City Attorney, and City Manager (OED)
4. Public Safety—Clerk, City Manager, Police, and Fire
5. Facilities, Infrastructure, Transportation, Environment and Sustainability (Clerk, City Manager, Planning, Public Works, and Parks)
6. Health, Equity, Life Enrichment, and Community (Clerk, City Manager, HHCS)

Staffing Costs

Based upon preliminary calculations of staff titles and salary classifications, the average commission staff secretary makes roughly $60-$65/hour. Based upon recent interviews with secretaries and department heads, individual commission secretaries work anywhere from 8-80 hours a month staffing and preparing for commission meetings. To illustrate this example, a few examples are listed below.

Commission	Step 5 Rate of Pay	Reported Hours a Month	Total Direct Cost of Commission per Month
Animal Care	$70.90	8	$567.20
Landmarks Preservation Commission	$57.96	80	$4,636.80
Design Review Commission	$52.76	60	$3,165.60
Peace and Justice	$60.82	32	$1,946.24

It is extremely challenging to estimate a specific cost of commissions in the aggregate because of the varying workload but a safe estimate of salary costs dedicated to commissions would be in the six-figure range.

Many commissions--particularly quasi-judicial and land use commissions-- require more than one staff member to be present and prepare reports for commissions. For example, Zoning Adjustment Board meetings often last five hours or more and multiple staff members spend hours preparing for hearings. The Planning Department indicates that in addition to direct hours, additional commission-related staff time adds an extra 33% staff time. Using the previous examples, this means that the Landmarks Preservation Commission would cost the city over $6,000 in productivity while the Design Review Commission would cost the City over $4,000 a month.

Productivity Losses and Administrative Burden

Current productivity losses are stark because of the sheer amount of hours of staffing time dedicated to commissions. As an example, in 2019 one of the City of Berkeley's main homeless outreach workers staffed a commission within the City Manager's department. She spent approximately 32 hours a month working directly on commission work. While this is not a commentary on a particular commission, this work directly impacted her ability to conduct homeless outreach.

RATIONALE FOR RECOMMENDATION

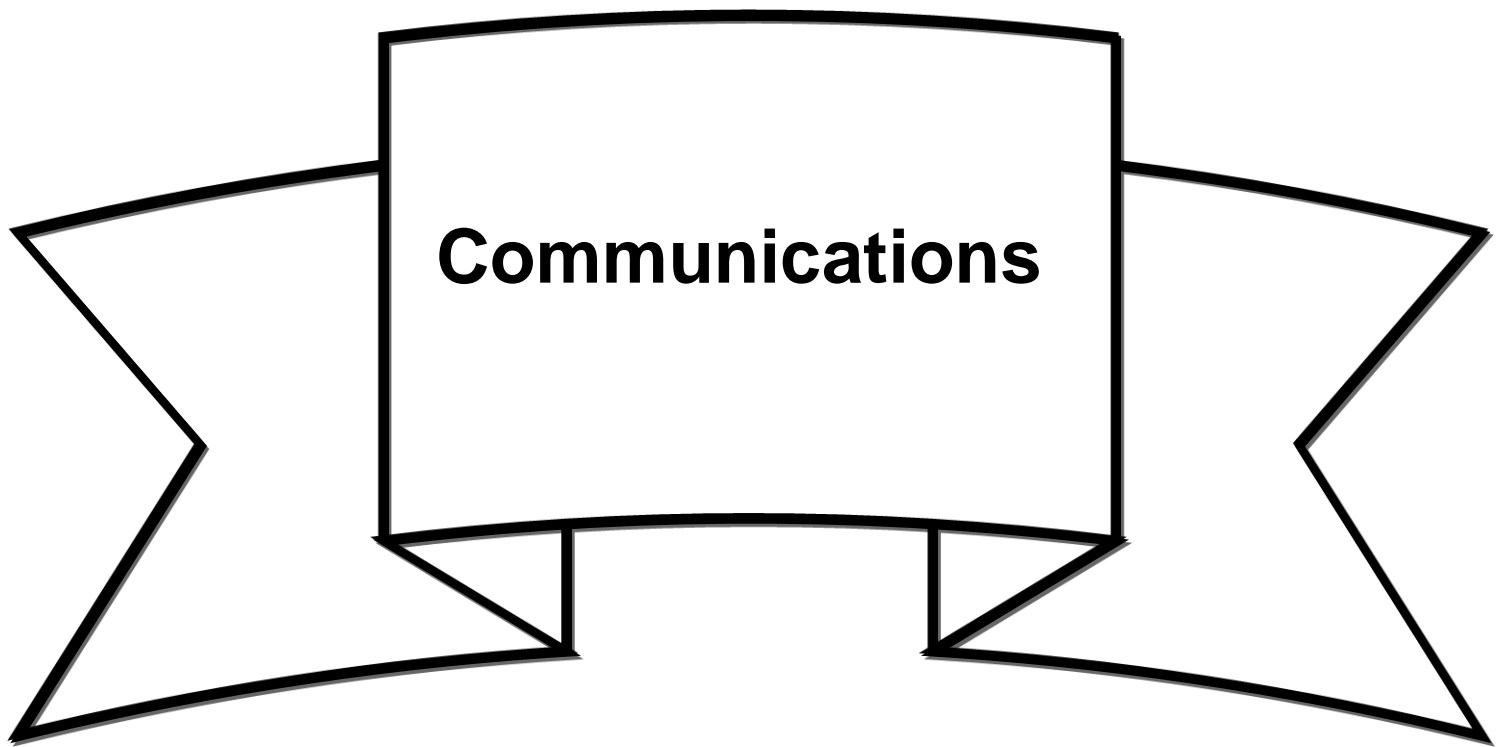

At a time when the City needs to demonstrate efficiency and fiscal restraint, the current commission structure is costly and duplicative. At the same time, civic engagement and commission work absolutely deserve an important role in Berkeley. Consequently, this legislation retains commissions but centers on overall community benefit, staff productivity, and associated costs. This is imperative to address, especially in light of COVID-19 and community demands for reinvestment in important social services.

FISCAL IMPACTS

Significant savings associated with reduced staffing.

Human Welfare and Community
Action Commission

Communication
November 6, 2023

To: Peace and Justice Commission

From: Mary-Claire Katz, Human Welfare and Community Action Commission Secretary

Subject: Merging of Human Welfare and Community Action Commission (HWCAC) and Peace and Justice Commission

BACKGROUND

On June 15, 2021, City Council directed the City Manager to examine a multi-phased approach to the consolidation of City commissions, including a merger of the HWCAC and the Peace and Justice Commission.

The HWCAC is established by Berkeley Municipal Code (BMC) Chapter 3.78. BMC Chapter 3.78.070 (A) states that the “commission shall function as the Board of the Community Action Agency as set forth in California Government Code Sections 12754 and 12756, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference”, and BMC Chapter 3.78.070 (E) further states that the commission will “advise the City Council on all matters affecting the social welfare of the community and its citizens”.

The Peace and Justice Commission is established by BMC Chapter 3.68. BMC Chapter 3.68.070. (A) states that the Peace and Justice Commission will “advise the Berkeley City Council and the Berkeley Unified School Board on all matters relating to the City of Berkeley’s role in issues of peace and social justice, including, but not limited to the issues of ending the arms race, abolishing nuclear weapons, support for human rights and self-determination throughout the world, and the reallocation of our national resources so that money now spent on war and preparation of war is spent on fulfilling human needs and the promotion of peace.”

The merging of these two commissions was delayed due to conflicting municipal code requirements, as well as ensuring that the requirements of Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) funding were able to be met upon the merger. City staff have determined that the commissions are able to be merged without disrupting the responsibilities of each respective commission.

CURRENT SITUATION AND TIMELINE

City staff are proceeding with Council’s direction to merge the HWCAC and Peace and Justice Commission. This merger will maintain the integrity of each respective commissions’ core values as well as any additional legal requirements and responsibilities that the commissions may have in their municipal codes and other legislation. The HWCAC acts as a tripartite board for the City’s CSBG funding, which includes several unique responsibilities, including elected low-income representation, report reviews and approvals, and funding recommendations.

The Peace and Justice Commission is responsible for activities such as Nuclear Free Berkeley Act Waivers and the Oppressive States Contracting Prohibition.

Tentative Commission Merger Timeline

November – December, 2023

- City staff reviews each commission BMC, including any additional roles and responsibilities not included in BMC and bylaws.

January, 2024

- City staff drafts and finalizes BMC for merged commission, with review from:
 - City Clerk
 - HWCAC Secretary
 - Peace and Justice Secretary, and
 - CalCAPA.

March, 2024

- New commission BMC presented to Council for first ordinance reading.

April, 2024

- New commission BMC presented to Council for second ordinance reading and establishment of new commission.

The new commission's enabling legislation will be effective 30 days after the second ordinance reading. During this time, City staff and commissioners will finalize the details of the merger and prepare the new commission schedule.

Please contact the Peace and Justice secretary or the HWCAC secretary with any feedback or questions regarding the merging of the HWCAC and the Peace and Justice Commission.

PROBLEM/SUMMARY STATEMENT

Commissions provide an important mechanism for residents to shape public policy and provide input on City business. However, the City of Berkeley maintains far more commissions than other cities of similar size, with a significant investment of City resources to staff all 37 commissions. Some commission secretaries report spending upwards of 20+ hours per week on commission business, which takes valuable time away from addressing other pressing City priorities. The local public health emergency created by the global COVID-19 pandemic has required City staff to shift to new roles and maintain an Emergency Operations Center since January 2020; recovery from the pandemic will continue to demand the full attention of our City staff for the foreseeable future. Given the uncertainties that our City faces in recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic and the demands that this recovery places on our City staff, it is an appropriate time to consider how best to consolidate our commissions in a manner that helps the City to achieve its core mission.

REITERATION OF PRINCIPLES

Commissions are a fundamental part of the City's policymaking process. Members of boards and commissions provide an invaluable service to our City. They advise the City Council on a wide variety of subjects by making recommendations on important policy matters. Without the assistance of the various boards and commissions, the City Council could give many complex and significant matters only a perfunctory review. The detailed studies and considered advice of boards and commissions are often catalysts for innovative programs and improved services. Serving on a board or commission can be a rewarding experience for community service-minded residents. It is an excellent way to participate in the functioning of local government and to make a personal contribution to the improvement of our community. Making local government effective and responsive is everybody's responsibility.

- The Public Works Commission, for example, develops the City's five year paving plan which they then present to City Council for approval. Through extensive community outreach and research, the Commission identifies the streets most in need of repaving.
- With the passage of Measure D in 2014, a Panel of Experts on Sugar-Sweetened Beverages has guided the City's spending of over $5 million in revenue generated from the Measure. Those dollars have bolstered local public campaigns and education initiatives.

These are merely two examples of the powerful role that Commissions play in City policymaking.

CURRENT SITUATION AND ITS EFFECTS

Current Commission Structure

The City of Berkeley has approximately thirty-seven commissions overseen by city administration, most of which have at least nine members and who are appointed by individual councilmembers. These commissions were intended to be a forum for public participation beyond what is feasible at the City Council, so that issues that come before the City Council can be adequately vetted.

Some commissions are required by charter or mandated by voter approval or state/federal mandate. Those commissions are the following:

1. Board of Library Trustees (charter)
2. Business Improvement Districts (state mandate)
3. Civic Arts Commission (charter)
4. Community Environmental Advisory Commission (state/federal mandate--CUPA)
5. Fair Campaign Practices Commission/Open Government (ballot measure)
6. Homeless Services Panel of Experts (ballot measure)
7. Housing Advisory Commission (state/federal mandate)
8. Human Welfare and Community Action (state/federal mandate)
9. Measure O Bond Oversight Committee (ballot measure)
10. Mental Health Commission (state/federal mandate)
11. Personnel (charter)Police Review Commission (ballot measure)
12. Sugar-Sweetened Beverages (ballot measure)

Berkeley must have its own mental health commission because of its independent Mental Health Division. In order to receive services, the City needs to have to have an advisory board. Additionally, Berkeley's Community Environmental Advisory Commission is a required commission in order to oversee Certified Unified Program Agency (CUPA) under California's Environmental Protection Agency. Additionally, some commissions serve other purposes beyond policy advisories. The Children, Youth and Recreation Commission, Housing Advisory Commission, and the Human Welfare and Community Action Commission advise Council on community agency funding. However, some of the aforementioned quasi-judicial and state/federal mandated commissions do not need to stand independently and can be combined to meet mandated goals.

The Importance of Commissions

Commissions serve a vital role in the City of Berkeley's rich process of resident engagement. An analysis of agendas over the past several years shows that the commissions have created policy that have benefited the community in meaningful and important ways. In 2020, 14 of the 16 commission items submitted to Council passed. From 2016-2020, an average of 34 items were submitted by commissions to Council for consideration.

The City's Health, Housing and Community Development department serves an important role in addressing COVID-19, racial disparities, inequitable health outcomes, affordable housing, and other important community programs. Additionally, Health, Housing, and Community Development also staffs ten commissions, more than many cities of Berkeley's size. Council needs to wrestle with these tradeoffs to ensure that we seek the maximum benefit for all of the Berkeley community, particularly our most vulnerable.

Commission Structures in Neighboring Jurisdictions

In comparison to neighboring jurisdictions of similar size, Berkeley has significantly more commissions. The median number of commissions for these cities is 12 and the average is 15.

The departments that staff more than five commissions are Health, Housing, and Community Services (10 commissions), Planning (7 commissions), and the City Manager's department (8 commissions). At the same time, some smaller departments (e.g. the City Attorney's office) may be impacted just as meaningfully if they have fewer staff and larger individual commission workloads.

Policy Committee Structure Expands Opportunities for Public Input

With the recent addition of policy committees, proposed legislation is now vetted by councilmembers in these forums. Each policy committee is focused on a particular content area aligned with the City of Berkeley's strategic plan and is staffed and an advisory policy body to certain city departments. Members of the public are able to provide input at these committees as well. The policy committees currently have the following department alignment:

Department and Policy Committee alignment

1. Agenda and Rules—all departments
2. Budget and Finance—City Manager, Clerk, Budget, and Finance
3. Land Use and Economic Development—Clerk, Planning, HHCS, City Attorney, and City Manager (OED)
4. Public Safety—Clerk, City Manager, Police, and Fire
5. Facilities, Infrastructure, Transportation, Environment and Sustainability (Clerk, City Manager, Planning, Public Works, and Parks)
6. Health, Equity, Life Enrichment, and Community (Clerk, City Manager, HHCS)

Staffing Costs

Based upon preliminary calculations of staff titles and salary classifications, the average commission staff secretary makes roughly $60-$65/hour. Based upon recent interviews with secretaries and department heads, individual commission secretaries work anywhere from 8-80 hours a month staffing and preparing for commission meetings. To illustrate this example, a few examples are listed below.

Commission	Step 5 Rate of Pay	Reported Hours a Month	Total Direct Cost of Commission per Month
Animal Care	$70.90	8	$567.20
Landmarks Preservation Commission	$57.96	80	$4,636.80
Design Review Commission	$52.76	60	$3,165.60
Peace and Justice	$60.82	32	$1,946.24

It is extremely challenging to estimate a specific cost of commissions in the aggregate because of the varying workload but a safe estimate of salary costs dedicated to commissions would be in the six-figure range.

Many commissions--particularly quasi-judicial and land use commissions-- require more than one staff member to be present and prepare reports for commissions. For example, Zoning Adjustment Board meetings often last five hours or more and multiple staff members spend hours preparing for hearings. The Planning Department indicates that in addition to direct hours, additional commission-related staff time adds an extra 33% staff time. Using the previous examples, this means that the Landmarks Preservation Commission would cost the city over $6,000 in productivity while the Design Review Commission would cost the City over $4,000 a month.

Productivity Losses and Administrative Burden

Current productivity losses are stark because of the sheer amount of hours of staffing time dedicated to commissions. As an example, in 2019 one of the City of Berkeley's main homeless outreach workers staffed a commission within the City Manager's department. She spent approximately 32 hours a month working directly on commission work. While this is not a commentary on a particular commission, this work directly impacted her ability to conduct homeless outreach.

RATIONALE FOR RECOMMENDATION

At a time when the City needs to demonstrate efficiency and fiscal restraint, the current commission structure is costly and duplicative. At the same time, civic engagement and commission work absolutely deserve an important role in Berkeley. Consequently, this legislation retains commissions but centers on overall community benefit, staff productivity, and associated costs. This is imperative to address, especially in light of COVID-19 and community demands for reinvestment in important social services.

FISCAL IMPACTS

Significant savings associated with reduced staffing.

3.78.010 Creation of the Human Welfare and Community Action Commission.

A Berkeley Human Welfare and Community Action Commission is hereby created. The membership of such commission shall be fifteen:

- A. Nine of the members shall be appointed by Berkeley City Councilmembers, in accordance with the Fair Representation Ordinance.
- B. Six of the members shall be representatives of the poor, to be elected two from each of three districts as established by the City Council and shown on the map attached hereto, made a part hereof and marked "Exhibit A" (see Ch. 3.999).
- C. The community service block grant (CSBG) target area shall comprise the total area from which three election districts are drawn. Each district will have approximately equal numbers of poverty families utilizing data from the 1980 Census.
 - 1. Four of the nine members of the commission appointed by the council shall be members or officials of business, industry, labor, religious, welfare, education, or major groups and interests in the community, as required by California Government Code Sections 12736\(e\), 12750\(a\)\(2\), and 12751, the language of which is incorporated herein by reference.
 - 2. Representatives of private sector organizations shall be empowered to speak and act on behalf of the organizations they represent in connection with the board's business. (Ord. 6011-NS § 1, 1990)

3.78.020 Term of office.

The term of office of each elected member, other than specifically provided herein, shall be four years from the date of the elections; no person shall serve for more than two full elected terms, or eight years.

The term of office of each appointed member shall be as provided in B.M.C. 2.04.075. (Ord. 6225-NS § 1, 1993; Ord. 6011-NS § 2, 1990)

3.78.030 Vacancy and removal.

A. Vacancies on said commission shall be filled in accordance with the provisions outlined in Section 3.78.010 herein. Vacancies on the board shall result when a member notifies the City Clerk of their resignation, or when an elected board member moves and establishes residence outside of their election district.

B. When the position of an appointed board member is vacant, the original appointing councilmember shall fill the vacancy, the new appointee serving to finish the unexpired term of the appointment. Vacancies in any elected commission position shall be filled by an appropriate elected alternate; when no alternate is available, the vacancy shall be filled by the remaining elected commission members, who shall recommend to the council the person to fill out the term of the appointment.

C. An elected member of the commission shall also be removed when they are absent from three consecutive regular meetings of the commission. After a member has been absent from two consecutive regular meetings, the secretary advises the member that absence from three consecutive meetings of the commission will result in automatic termination. There is no provision for excused absences. Within one week of the third consecutive absence the commission secretary notifies the City Clerk of the three absences. The appointment expires on the date the fact of the third absence is reported to the City Clerk. Within one week the City Clerk notifies the commission member that their term has expired and the councilmember or council, as appropriate, that a vacancy exists on the board and that an appointment should be made to fill such vacancy. (Ord. 6011-NS § 3, 1990)

3.78.040 Temporary vacancies.

A member of the commission may take a temporary leave of absence of up to three months in duration, during which time a temporary vacancy shall exist. During the period of such temporary vacancy in an elected position, the elected alternate shall serve in the place of the regular representative. If there is no alternate for the commission member, a temporary appointment shall be made by the remaining representatives of the poor. During the period of such temporary vacancy in an appointed position, the appointing councilmember upon proper notice may make a temporary appointment leave of absence, the member shall automatically resume full membership on the board to the end of their term. (Ord. 6011-NS § 4, 1990)

3.78.050 Officers, meetings and procedures.

- A. The commission shall elect one of its members chairperson and one of its members vice-chairperson, who shall hold office for one year or unless their terms as members of the commission shall expire sooner and until their successors are elected. The chairperson and vice-chairperson shall be elected during the first quarter of each calendar year. An alternate may not serve as an officer of the board.
- B. The commission shall establish a regular place and time for meeting. All meetings shall be noticed as required by law and shall be scheduled in a way to allow for maximum input from the public. The frequency of meetings shall be as determined by City Council resolution. The scheduling of special meetings in addition to those established by City Council resolution, except special meetings that take the place of cancelled regular meetings, shall be subject to approval by the City Council. A request for a special meeting shall include the reason for the proposed meeting and should be expedited on the City Council's agenda, or in the alternative, placed before the Agenda Committee for approval.
- C. A quorum shall be one member more than fifty percent of the non-vacant seats on the commission. The commission shall keep an accurate record of its proceedings and transactions and shall submit an annual report to the City Council, with a copy to the City Manager.
- D. All committees and subcommittees of this commission shall fairly reflect the composition of the commission. (Ord. 6901-NS § 1, 2006; Ord. 6011-NS § 5, 1990)

3.78.060 Social welfare defined.

"Social Welfare" as used in this chapter, means that endeavor which is concerned with community-wide and group interests rather than with needs of individual citizens and embraces such areas, among others, as race relations, interfaith relations, special needs of the family, children, youth and the aged, and the way in which people live and work together. (Ord. 6011-NS § 6, 1990)

3.78.070 Functions of the commission.

The functions of the commission shall be as follows:

- A. The commission shall function as the Board of the Community Action Agency as set forth in California Government Code Sections 12754 and 12756, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference;
- B. Identify social welfare needs of the community and create a citizen awareness of these needs;
- C. Encourage improved standards of social welfare services, both public and private, and in so doing, encourage coordination and provide advice and assistance to organizations in the field of social welfare in the City; cooperate with regional organizations; encourage the development of programs designed to improve the social welfare of the community; within staff limitations, collect, maintain and interpret social welfare information and statistics for the use of citizens and organizations in the City;

- D. Identify social welfare standards made available by other social welfare agencies, provide public information with reference to such services, and within staff limitations, render a referral service;

Prepare such publications and results of study and research which will tend to promote good will and minimize or eliminate discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry. Such publications and results of study and research shall be issued and disseminated only after approval by the City Council;
- I. Receive private donations and administer any trust declared or created for any charitable or social welfare purpose, and supervise and direct the disbursement of any public funds which may be set apart or acquired all in the manner provided by the City Council;
- J. Perform such other functions and duties as may be directed by the City Council or as may be directed by the City Council or prescribed or authorized by any ordinance of the City;
- K. In prescribing the above duties and functions of the commission, it is not the intent of the council to duplicate or overlap the functions, duties or responsibilities heretofore or hereafter assigned to any other City board or commission or to a City board or commission or to a City department. As to such functions or responsibilities above set forth which are partially or wholly the responsibilities of another board or commission or of a department of the City, the commission will render assistance and advice to such board, commission or department as may be requested. (Ord. 6011-NS § 7, 1990)

3.78.080 Elections for representatives of the poor.

- A. Elections for representatives of the poor shall be held biennially in the month of November in the even numbered years, commencing in November, 1988. Said election shall be in accordance with procedures as may be adopted by the City Council.
- B. Elections for representatives of the poor shall not be held on the day of general elections.
- C. If there are no qualified candidates in a district, the remaining representatives of the poor, acting alone, shall select a person to fill the vacancy until the next election, at which time the vacancy shall appear on the ballot to fill any existing and remaining unexpired term. The name of the selected representative shall be submitted to the City Council for confirmation. Qualification for candidacy for representatives of the poor shall be in accordance with federal and state guidelines, and include residency within the district from which the representative is elected or selected.

D. For the 1988 election only, in each of the districts the candidate receiving the highest number of votes will serve four years terms, and the candidate receiving the second highest number of votes will serve two year terms. The person receiving the third and fourth highest number of votes in each district will serve as two alternates, serving terms of four and two years, respectively.

E. For the 1990 election the seats of the representatives of the poor elected in 1988 for two year terms will be up for election, the representatives then elected to serve for four year terms; for the 1992 election the seats of the representatives of the poor elected in 1988 for four year terms will be up for election, the representatives then elected to serve for four year terms. In subsequent elections, this staggering of terms provides that the term of service shall be four years, that the election of the representatives shall be staggered, and that three of the six total representatives (and one of each district's two representatives) will be elected at alternate elections every two years.

F. For all elections beginning with 1990, the persons receiving the highest number of votes in each district will serve as that district's representative, and the person receiving the second highest number of votes as that district's alternate, both serving in such respective capacities for four year terms. An alternate will serve only in the absence of the principal and shall have full voting rights when serving in such capacity. (Ord. 6011-NS § 8, 1990)

3.78.090 Bylaws of the Human Welfare and Community Action Commission.

The commission shall prepare and maintain bylaws for the community action agency. These bylaws and amendments thereto shall be consistent with City, state and federal policies governing community action agencies. A copy of the commission's bylaws and all amendments thereto shall be distributed to the Berkeley City Clerk for public record purposes and shall be made available for public inspection. PEACE AND JUSTICE COMMISSION

Sections:

- 3.68.010 Findings.
- 3.68.020 Established--Membership--Appointment.
- 3.68.030 "Peace and justice" defined.
- 3.68.040 Automatic termination of appointment.
- 3.68.050 Liaison representative to other City entities.
- 3.68.060 Organization, meetings, rules, and procedures.
- 3.68.070 Functions.

3.68.010 Findings.

The council finds as follows:

- A. The intentional destruction of cities in war is the rule and not the exception.
- B. State, national and international governmental bodies have failed to control war and in fact, have in many cases, been responsible for war and the conditions of war.
- C. The wealth that could be spent to help the poor, heal the sick, house the homeless, educate the children, and care for the elderly is now spent on ever more costly weapons of mass destruction.
- D. Peace is not a fictitious tranquil end-state, but the process of solving differences constructively, creatively, and non-violently.
- E. Peace is inseparable from justice.
- F. The present threat of nuclear or biological holocaust is not peace, but a condition of war against all humanity.
- G. Initiatives are needed to reverse the drift toward war and to remove the causes of war.
- H. Our best protection lies in initiating, devising, and promulgating peaceful and just policy alternatives.
- I. Individual citizens, unless organized, are virtually powerless in confronting and influencing larger governmental bodies.
- J. It is the responsibility of one and all to labor hard for peace and justice within forums of appropriate scale.
- K. The residents of Berkeley have continually demonstrated their concern for peace and justice based on equality among all peoples.

L. The residents of Berkeley have welcomed to our City those who have been forced into exile, and who have come fleeing torture and death.

M. The Berkeley City Council, to act successfully in furthering peace and justice, must have wise counsel, accurate research, vigorous analysis, articulate formulation of issues and proposals for action, and thus the establishment of a Peace and Justice Commission is proper. (Ord. 5705-NS § 1, 1986)

3.68.020 Established--Membership--Appointment.

A Peace and Justice Commission is hereby established. The commission shall consist of fifteen members. Six members shall be appointed by the Berkeley Unified School District Board and nine members shall be appointed by the Berkeley City Council. Commission members shall have a demonstrated interest in the area of peace and social justice. It is suggested that the commission should have some representation of political refugees and political exiles who are residents of Berkeley and otherwise eligible to serve on the commission. Berkeley City Council appointments to the commission shall be made, and vacancies shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2.04.030 through 2.04.130 of the Berkeley Municipal Code enacted as Ordinance No. 4780-N.S. by the voters of the City. (Ord. 5705-NS § 2, 1986)

3.68.030 "Peace and justice" defined.

For the purpose of this chapter, "peace and social justice" shall refer to the goal of creating a world community in which the relations between people are based on equality, respect for human rights, and the abhorrence of exploitation and all forms of oppression. (Ord. 5705-NS § 3, 1986)

3.68.040 Automatic termination of appointment.

A. The appointment of any member of the commission who has been absent from three consecutive meetings shall automatically terminate as set forth in Berkeley Municipal Code Chapter 3.02 unless: (i) the absence of the commissioner is due to incarceration for acts of conscience or is due to absence from the City for work related to that of the commission, (ii) in the case of absences for reasons stated in item (i) it is strongly urged that in accordance with Section 3.02.030 of the Berkeley Municipal Code the appointing councilmember grant a leave of absence for not more than three months, and fill the vacancy with a temporary appointment to the commission.

B. The chairperson of the commission shall report the attendance records of each member of the commission to the City Clerk monthly for each regularly scheduled meeting.

C. Any member absent as noted in items A (i) and A (ii) above shall be recorded as "excused". Any member absent without being recorded as excused from three consecutive regular meetings as reported monthly shall be terminated automatically after the third missed meeting.

D. The City Clerk shall notify any member whose appointment has automatically terminated and report to the appointing City Councilmember or School Board that a vacancy exists on the commission and that an appointment should be made for the unexpired term. (Ord. 5705-NS § 4, 1986)

3.68.050 Liaison representative to other City entities.

The commission may designate one or more of its members to act as a liaison representative to any other board, commission, or committee of the City. The functions of the liaison representative may include:

- A. Attendance at meetings of such other boards, commissions or committees;
- B. Advising the Peace and Justice Commission on the background behind those recommendations to the City Council of other boards, commissions or committees; and,
- C. On request of any member of such other board, commission or committee giving advice to such other board, commission or committee of policies, and procedures and recommendations to the City Council of the Peace and Justice Commission that may bear upon matters under discussion by such other board, commission or committee. (Ord. 5705-NS § 5, 1986)

3.68.060 Organization, meetings, rules, and procedures.

- A. The commission shall organize by electing from its members one chairperson and one vice-chairperson and such other officers as may be necessary, who shall hold office for one year and until their successors are elected unless their terms as members of the commission expire sooner. An officer or employee of the City designated by the City Manager shall serve as secretary to the commission.
- B. The commission shall establish a regular place and time for meeting. All meetings shall be noticed as required by law and shall be scheduled in a way to allow for maximum input from the public. The frequency of meetings shall be as determined by City Council resolution. The scheduling of special meetings in addition to those established by City Council resolution, except special meetings that take the place of cancelled regular meetings, shall be subject to approval by the City Council. A request for a special meeting shall include the reason for the proposed meeting and should be expedited on the City Council's agenda, or in the alternative, placed before the Agenda Committee for approval.
- C. The commission shall establish internal working rules and procedures which do not violate those rules of governance existing in the City Charter, the Commissioner's Handbook, or established through the authority of the City Council. (Ord. 6899-NS § 1, 2006; Ord. 5705-NS § 6, 1986)

3.68.070 Functions.

The commission shall perform the following functions:

- A. Advise the Berkeley City Council and the Berkeley Unified School Board on all matters relating to the City of Berkeley's role in issues of peace and social justice, including, but not limited to the issues of ending the arms race, abolishing nuclear weapons, support for human rights and self-determination throughout the world, and the reallocation of our national resources so that money now spent on war and preparation of war is spent on fulfilling human needs and the promotion of peace.
- B. Help create citizen awareness around issues of social justice and develop educational programs for implementation by the City Council and the School Board.
- C. Help develop proposals for the City Council and the School Board for actions in furtherance of the goals of peace and justice, and help publicize such actions in the community.
- D. Hold public hearings and community forums on issues that fall within the charge of the commission, and call on appropriate witnesses to provide pertinent information.
- E. Initiate and encourage research programs to collect and assess information relevant to the functions of the commission including the effect of the arms race and military spending on funding for City and school programs and on the quality of life for citizens of Berkeley.
- F. Develop ways to resolve conflict which do not involve violence and which may be applied on a local level as well as a national level.
- G. Initiate and develop cultural and educational foreign exchange.
- H. Act as a liaison between community groups organizing around issues of peace and social justice and City government.
- I. Prepare inventories of City resources, both public and private that are available for furthering the work of promoting international peace and social justice.
- J. Provide information to other municipalities and school districts on the work of the commission, and exchange information on actions taken by cities and the School Board in furtherance of the goals of the commission.
- K. Assist the Director of Finance in the annual evaluation of financial institutions for qualification of City investments; complete development and assist in the implementation of a linked deposit program; encourage target investments; coordinate with City agencies, appropriate community organizations, public and private investors, and the Governor's Public Investment Task Force; and advise the City Council on matters relating to the responsible investment of public funds in accordance with the responsible investment policy established by Resolution No. 55,141A-NS.

L. Perform such other functions and duties as may be directed by the City Council or prescribed or authorized by any ordinance of the City, and such other functions and duties not prohibited by City Council which the commission should decide are consistent with its overall function of promoting peace and social justice.

M. In prescribing the above duties and functions of the commission, it is not the intent of the council to duplicate or overlap the functions, duties, or responsibilities heretofore or hereafter assigned to any other City board or commission or to a City department. As to such functions or responsibilities above set forth which are partially or wholly the responsibilities of another board or commission or of a department of the City, the commission will render such assistance and advice to such board, commission or department as may be requested. (Ord. 6017-NS § 1, 1990; Ord. 5705-NS § 7, 1986)

CONSENT CALENDAR
January 30, 2024

To: Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council
From: Dee Williams-Ridley, City Manager
Submitted by: Lisa Warhuus, Director, Health, Housing, and Community Services
Subject: Dissolution of the Human Welfare and Community Action Commission and the Peace and Justice Commission; and, establishment of the Berkeley Community Action Agency Commission

RECOMMENDATION

Adopt first reading of an Ordinance to:

1. Repeal Chapter 3.68, Peace and Justice Commission; and,
2. Repeal Chapter 3.78, Human Welfare and Community Action Commission; and,
3. Establish the Berkeley Community Action Agency Commission with Chapter 3.70

FISCAL IMPACTS OF RECOMMENDATION

The City of Berkeley receives approximately $300,000 of CSBG funding per calendar year to support programs and services that combat poverty for Berkeley residents. Currently, the Human Welfare and Community Action Commission (HWCAC) acts as the federally mandated tripartite board for CSBG funding and advises the Council on how to use these funds. The duties associated with CSBG funding will be transferred to the newly-established Berkeley Community Action Agency Commission (BCAA), which will take on the advisory responsibilities previously held by the HWCAC. The City Council will continue to be the decision-making body and will be responsible for all final CSBG funding decisions.

The dissolution of two commissions and establishment of one commission may reduce staffing and operating costs associated with running commission meetings, because the total number of commissions will be decreased by one. This staff cost saving was identified in the June 15, 2021 Council item, "Commission Reorganization for Post-COVID19 Budget Recovery" (Attachment 2).

CURRENT SITUATION AND ITS EFFECTS

In order to sustain civic engagement and remain fiscally responsible, in June 2021 the City Council directed the City Manager to consolidate several City commissions, including the HWCAC and Peace and Justice Commission (PJC). Additionally, as of this writing, the HWCAC has two commissioners and has not achieved a commission meeting quorum since June 21, 2023. This is a significant problem for both the City commission meeting requirements as well as CSBG funding requirements, for which the HWCAC serves as an advisory board to Council. Without regular meetings of the HWCAC, the City is in violation of the contract requirements for CSBG funding, which include approval of CSBG revenue contracts, regular review of community agency performance reports, public hearings on community needs, and funding recommendations to City Council. With over half of the seats currently vacant, the PJC has also struggled to maintain its membership.

The proposed Berkeley Community Action Agency Commission (BCAA) would adopt all CSBG-related requirements, ensuring contract compliance and preservation of the approximate $300,000 per calendar year that the City receives in CSBG funding for anti-poverty programs and services for Berkeley residents.

The proposed change from 15 members of the HWCAC to a nine-member structure for the BCAA would achieve a balance between the strict federal funding requirement to have a tripartite board, and the ability to keep the seats on the commission filled. The three parts of the tripartite board are one-third elected public officials (or their designees), at least one-third elected low-income individuals residing in the CSBG agency's designated service area (in this case, the City of Berkeley), and the remaining members from the private sector (such as representatives from business, industry, labor, religious, human services, education, or other groups with interest in the community). City staff received technical assistance from the California Community Action Partnership Association (CalCAPA), which supports Community Action Agencies and CSBG funding recipients with HUD compliance, to ensure that the new commission structure will be CSBG compliant.

The new BCAA municipal code chapter will include the key responsibilities and requirements from both the HWCAC and PJC.

BACKGROUND

On June 15, 2021, City Council directed the City Manager to examine a multi-phased approach to the consolidation of City commissions, including a merger of the HWCAC and the PJC. The merging of these two commissions was delayed due to conflicting municipal code requirements, as well as challenges to ensuring CSBG funding compliance. City staff have now determined that the commissions are able to be merged without disrupting the responsibilities of each respective commission. City staff shared a memo with both commissions that included a description and timeline for the merger, as well as staff contact information for any questions, concerns, or feedback.

The HWCAC was established to identify social welfare needs of the community and to advise City Council on the use of CSBG funds for services that benefit low-income Berkeley residents, acting as a tripartite board for the City of Berkeley's CSBG funding.

The PJC was established to advise City Council and the Berkeley Unified School Board on all matters relating to the City of Berkeley's role in issues of peace and social justice, including, but not limited to the issues of ending the arms race, abolishing nuclear weapons, support for human rights and self-determination throughout the world, and the reallocation of our national resources so that money now spent on war and preparation of war is spent on fulfilling human needs and the promotion of peace.

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY AND CLIMATE IMPACTS

There are no environmental sustainability or climate impacts associated with this report.

RATIONALE FOR RECOMMENDATION

The proposal to dissolve the HWCAC and PJC and establish the BCAA is consistent with Council's directive to consolidate those two commissions. The new commission (BCAA) will be responsible for all CSBG-related requirements, which are currently not being met by the HWCAC due to ongoing commissioner vacancies and a lack of commission meeting quorum. The formation of the BCAA addresses these issues explicitly, by introducing new strategies and configurations for the tripartite board. In addition, the PJC has struggled to maintain its membership as well with over half of the seats currently vacant. Combining the two commissions will help maintain a more robust membership and public participation, and will support carrying out the assigned duties.

ALTERNATIVE ACTIONS CONSIDERED

Due to the ongoing commission vacancies in the HWCAC and PJC, as well as Council's directive to consolidate the HWCAC and PJC, no alternative actions were considered.

There is no provision for excused absences. Within one week of the third consecutive absence the commission secretary notifies the City Clerk of the three absences. The appointment expires on the date the fact of the third absence is reported to the City Clerk.
