Dear Ms. Burns:

I am completely against the destruction of the Shattuck Theaters as part of this development.

The Shattuck is a beloved cultural resource, showing first-run, independent and foreign films. Berkeley needs this theater, as well as new development. Its former competitor, the California Theater has gone dark, leaving only the Shattuck to meet the needs of Berkeley's numerous cinophiles.

Why can't the theater complex be left alone? We need entertainment as well as development.

I vote NO against this development unless the Shattuck Theaters remain!

Sincerely,

Bronya Feldmann
